“ my love it has been almost 3 years and not a day goes by that I don't think about you or miss you. I will always love you and miss you. One day I hope to be with you again. I miss your laugh and your smile and will never forget the love that you had for me and the kids. Lil man is 3 1/2 now and he reminds me of you and the crazy things you did. he loves to fish like you did and whenever we get the chance we take him fishing. The girls and I are going camping with mom and dad and they want to spread ur ashes in the mountains but I still don't know if im ready to let you go. Every morning I am able to see your pics and know your right there watching over me but I still don't know if I can let you go. I will always love you Necoe and I miss you with all my heart.
