

Nova Lee Beaver

May 29, 1935 - October 22, 2014

Nova Lee (Williams) Beaver was born the second of six children to Russell and Madie (Woolridge) Williams on the Maston Ranch near Grandview, Texas May 29, 1935. She had a diverse job history including working in the jewelry business as well as manufacturing and assembly work and homemaker.

Lee enjoyed sewing and quilting, and had the greenest thumb of any gardener around. She could grow anything. She was also an animal lover. No stray of any kind could find a better home. Cats, dogs, goats, or whatever needed a loving home had one.

Lee made wonderful desserts, but her banana pudding was some of the best ever made. Her homemade peach ice cream was also a special treat.

Lee was preceded in death by her parents, her sister Laverne Williams, and her brothers Bobby and Gerald Williams. She is survived by her husband of almost 25 years James Beaver, sons Kenneth Waldrop and Michael Beaver and wife DeeDee, and daughters Dina Arterbury an Marisa Reeves and husband Mark.

Memaw also leaves behind grandsons Gus Arterbury, Jared Forrester, Christopher Reeves, and Joshua Reeves and granddaughters Hailey Miller, Ryleigh Beaver, Hailey Reeves, and Lauren Allen and 15 great-grandchildren.

Lee is also survived by numerous friends and members of her church family.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Nova Lee Beaver ”

January 08, 2023 at 11:32 PM