

Ophelia Ramey Brown

February 21, 1927 - March 8, 2018

Ophelia Ramey Brown, a long-time Denison resident, has passed away at the age of 91. A small, private memorial service will be held on March 18, 2018.

She was born on February 21, 1927 in the rural Colbert, Oklahoma community of Pearson Bottom. She was the only child of O.C. Ramey and Annie Irene (McMillin) Ramey and graduated from Achille High School. She grew up on farms during the hard times of the Great Depression and World War II but enjoyed a lot of happiness with her many friends and members of her large, extended family, including grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins. Many excursions were made over Red River and into Denison for shopping and occasionally a movie. In 1945, she married Billy Lloyd Brown of Denison and Hendrix, Oklahoma. They had two children, Judith Anne and Allan Lloyd. Due to Bill's work, the Brown family relocated several times to Borger, Texas; Decatur, Illinois; and Odessa, Texas. They retired to Denison in 1985 and divorced in 2003. Mr. Brown currently resides in Bonham, Texas.

Ophelia is survived by her daughter, Judith Anne Brown of Arlington, Texas, and many relatives scattered across the country. Her son Allan Lloyd Brown passed away in 2002 at the age of 51.

Services are under the direction of Brown's Durant Funeral and Cremation Service.
