“ We've had the privilage of knowing Frosty for the last couple of years. Both of us enjoyed playing music with him and having time well spent. What few times we talked or played, there was no shortages of smiles. May our thoughts and prayers be with Frosty's family and we'll always have his memory. Frosty play a tune for us in Heaven. Its been a privilage and an honor.

“ Frosty and I were pals from the 4th grade. He lived at Aylesworth and I lived at Warren Camp. We worked in the oil field some together. We kept in touch over the years and I will miss talking to him on the phone. He could draw anything and play any string instrument. I remember him playing a quitar that had only 5 strings singing "Blackland Farm". What a guy, ol' Frosty.
