“ Little brother, I will always miss you. There are no words to express the loss. You made me so proud - how you lived your life, the husband father and friend you were to many. Dad would be so proud of the man that you became. Rest in sweet peace little peanut you will always be fondly and lovingly remembered.

“ I've known you since we were kids across the old swinging bridge and then as adults, you became my neighbor across the street. You always honked, hollered and waved every time I saw you. You will be dearly missed. Tena, Trey, Catherine and family - I can't imagine the sorrow you are feeling. God Bless you all. Love ya!

“ Although I hadn't seen Osker is some time,I always thought of him and have fond memories of him - fishing trips, shopping for fishing gear, and just plain hanging out together. When I knew him as a young man, Osker was very mature and wise for his age and a very thoughtful and caring person. He was always ready to lend a hand at the cleaners or whenever my wife and I needed assistance. I never heard him complain about life - he was always joyful and imparted that same joy to others. He was always eager to talk with me about his spiritual life. Someday I will see him in Heaven and we will fish again, catching that big 10 pound largemouth bass that always seemed to elude us here. I truly miss you, Osker. Paul
