“ I remember, she used to be my neighbor, I lived across from her for a while. She was the sweetest lady, and her little dog JoJo, I loved him. Our dog used to get out a lot, and Peggy would try to distract her by giving her bologna, but it still didn't work, because of the little mischievous dog. But, she still tried. 2023, for her birthday I brought her flowers and a card, and she was so happy. I will always remember her as the greatest friend.
