“ I remember first meeting Phyllis just a little girl who tormented us. Still seems like she should be that same little girl. Will always remember her. Love to her.

“ I remember as a kid going over to her house and find her looking like Stevie Nicks singing up a storm in her living room and no one else is around. She sounded really good and then she made me sing with her and then dance with her, she was so full of life and always wanted everyone to enjoy life also. I loved my Aunt Phyllis she meant a lot to me and we shared a lot together!
