“ To the family of Rachel, I am so sorry for the loss of your dear one. Please accept my most sincere condolences at this time. Something that I have drawn comfort from when I've lost family members are the words of Revelation 21:4 where it says, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This will truly be a marvelous time when God fulfills those words. I will keep the family in my prayers that he will give you comfort and strength during this difficult time.

“ Dee,

I am so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful baby girl. She looks so much like you and no words can ever express how much sorrow you are going thru or how I can express my deepest sympathy in your time of need. Please know that my heart and prayers go out to you and your family. God gives us the hope that all things are for his glory and PS 119:50 states our comfort in suffering is know that he preserves our life. We will continue to lift you up in prayer asking for strength and comfort. Love you
