“ To the children and family of dear sweet Rachel, I was so sorry to read of the passing of Rachel. Oh how I have missed her since she left Blackwell and never got to see her when she was visiting in Blackwell. She was always so sweet and loving to me and my family . Her love for the Lord was such a witness to me and made me want to be a better Mother and Christian. My sympathy to her family for their loss but heaven's gain. We will see her again someday.
