

Randy Lee Lorance

June 6, 1959 - February 12, 2025

Tulsa, OK- Randy Lee Lorance was born Saturday, June 6, 1959 in Durant, Oklahoma to Hodge and Ruby Lorance. His suffering from diabetes ended Wednesday, February 12, 2025 when he went home to be with his Heavenly Father.

Randy attended school at Blue Public Schools from 1st thru 12th grades graduating in 1977. After graduating high school, he went to work for the Hale Halsell Company in Durant until it closed and moved to Tulsa. Randy and his family moved to Tulsa and continued to work for Hale Halsell.

Randy was a devout Dallas Cowboys fan from the age of 8 years old till his passing. He collected the Dallas Cowboys newsletters and had boxes of them even now. He collected anything that pertained to the Cowboys. He had the privilege of meeting Randy White and having his oldest sons picture made with Randy. Randy joined the Blue Baptist Church in 1981. He also loved his family very much and his many "fur babies" or cats.

Randy was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Garry Lorance.

Left behind to cherish his memory are his son, Garrett and wife, Danielle of Owasso, OK, grandson Rowan (the one that could put a smile on Randy's face) and son Dalton of Tulsa. His brother, Larry and wife, Geri of Durant; niece Lori Gallardo and Jose of Dallas; nephews Brent Lorange and wife, Shannon of Newcastle, Luke Lorange and Tyler Lorange of Edmond; great nieces Ansley Lorange and fiancé Randall Shelton of Oklahoma City, and Ella Gallardo of Dallas, Texas.

Memorial services will be held at 1:30 PM on Sunday, April 6th, in the Highland Cemetery chapel with Rev. Randy Lewis officiating.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.brownsfuneralservice.com.
