“ Rest in peace old friend. I met you in 1977 and we never lost touch. My dad and I had a great time visiting you at the shop back in 1991 on our way home from Indy. So sad to hear you are gone now. God bless your kind soul.

“ Lynn, I've never had the pleasure of meeting you but I was one of Raymond's classmates in grade and high school. I have fond memories of Raymond and his younger brother Tommy who serenaded us at George Washington Elementary before the unfortunate accident that took the youngster's life.

Raymond was always that quiet, unassuming person, never prone to seek the spotlight, but whose family and friends will sorely miss.

Our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family as we grieve the departure of Raymond.

*Sincerely,
Tom Lester
