“ Greg and I met Regina when she came over to the UK on holiday with Ellen. Both of these ladies had met a mutual friend of ours Cathy, on a previous holiday. The group had decided to meet up in their home countries at specified times.

UK was first on the list and as Cathy stays in England, and we live in Scotland, Cathy was keen to show her friends our beautiful countryside. Ellen, Regina and Cathy came to spend a long weekend with us, and we showed them the local sites and scenic places. Even though we had never met Ellen or Regina, they took us as we were and took their chances living with us and our three furry cat kids. We had a laugh and shared wonderful moments together and we were very sorry when it was time for our visitors to leave. We had made new friends and renewed our kinship with Cathy.

It was with a very heavy heart that I read of Regina's illness and her fight against cancer. Although we only had a short time together, our hearts are saddened by her death. We send our best wishes and prayers to her family and loved ones at this time, and pray that the ache will lessen with the passage of time, and that all your happy memories will be treasured in your hearts until you meet again. Safe in the arms of Jesus!
