Robb, you were the light of the moment for so many of us. The funny faces, hats, glasses, and all your props that made us smile. What a charming caring jokester! Being quick with wit and humor comes from great anxiety and depression. You covered your hurt with humor to make us laugh. You always said I wish I had a friend like you. You do from the first tear of laughter to my tears of disbelief. The light of our moment now is with the light of the world. Rest in heaven with Jesus my friend.

“ Rob was probably my best friend in high school. We had so many good times together. He was such a funny guy and so much fun to be around. I hit Rob up just a few months ago about me wanting to take photos around Texoma of the fall color and he showed me a few of his favorite spots at Blue River and the Tishomingo Wildlife Refuge. He loved to get outdoors. We had a really great time catching up and talking about the old days in Durant. He will certainly be missed.

“ Robb was like the brother that I never had. My dad, Ronnie Swafford had always coached Robb's baseball team and thought the world of him. Their relationship helped Robb overcome and deal with the loss of his eye.. Robb was also my most fierce Math competition in elementary school. I believe that we strived to make each other better. I will always love and miss him. We are all blessed to have known him. My prayers are with his children, his mother and sister and the many, many friends that he has left behind. Lord, please bless our DHS Class of 89.

The last time I saw Robb he told me how much he liked by late husband of 46 years. He said he always enjoyed being around him at his Madill store. That's how we felt about Robb. My prayers are with his family. He loved you so much. God be with you.
