“ Brother, you were the lone wolf of the family. You always beet to a different drummer. Bob went to go live with Dad when he was 14 yrs of age in Ponca City, Oklahoma. I would see my brother when me and Rhea were taken to the farm by Grandpa Collier. We could tell you some stories on those adventures.

Bob took off to the Navy on the USS Midway.

Bob was a cheerful man by all accounts. We always loved our Brother and he loved us girls. He had step-daughters that he loved Shannon and Cherity" Tootsie".

I could go on but left for another day.

I love you and I know you and Momma are on the porch watching down on us all.

“ I will always remember dad with a smile on his face. There was rarely a time he didn't smile. The last time we spent with him he taught my kids about Calf Fries. We went looking for some as soon as we left his house. My boys were so disappointed when we couldn't find them, so we promised them we would take them and dad out to dinner one night to try them. My kids will always remember their grandfather and the calf fry hunt!!
