“ I will never forget him growling at me when I was little. He like to mess with us kids but had the biggest heart of any man.

“ He was the most wonderful man he was my uncle but really he was like a second father or grandpa, he was not a man of wealth or riches on the earth but he was the wealthiest man i have ever know in his heart & soul & gave that to all around him he loved us no matter what & we are all his children, god may not have blessed him with birth children, but he had alot of them in all his nieces & nefews. he was a man of God & I know he is in heaven. I love you & will miss you so much!! all my love

“ I only met Bob twice and on both occasions he was very enjoyable to be around and he was great with all 4 of our kids. I wish that I had gotten to know him better. I know that he is loved by all his family and he will be missed very much. We pray for the family that you may have strength to get through this sad time. Sandy Shaw and family
