“ I cannot even pretend to know what to say, except what a tragic loss. Just know that my thoughts are with your family. May the beautiful memories of Roger bring you comfort in time, and may God ease your pain now.

“ To his family, words cannot express the depth of sorrow I bear for you all. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God keep you, and shine his countenance down upon you. To Roger... I have so many questions, and beg you to give me some sort of understanding. This isn't fair, not to you, or anyone you left behind. The last time I talked to you I believe was last year when the Rangers were in the World Series. You put on FB that you were at the game. I messaged you and told you to harass the other teams fans for me. You messaged back and said you were actually at home in bed watching. LoL I was like, me too, so I guess we're at the game together! I got a smile back... I loved seeing you talk about your "Talan Bear". He's a lucky kid to have you. Rest peacefully, and one day we'll all see you soon.
