

Ronnie Ray Gay

October 14, 1940 - July 22, 2015

Ronnie Gay was born on October 14, 1940 to Clint and Inez (Copeland) Gay. Ronnie married Ann Gay on December 15, 1989.

He was preceded in death by his parents, grandson, Logan Bullock, grandniece, Cara Maye.

He is survived by his wife of the home in Lebanon, OK; sons, Ricky Bullock and wife Barbara of Lone Grove, OK and David Bullock and wife Brooke of Gainesville, TX; step-daughters, Danetta Shelton and husband Curtis of Marlow, OK, Donna Thames and husband Karey of Foster, OK and Edwina Myers and husband Kenneth of Duncan, OK; sister, Deanna Gay Maye and husband Wayne of Haworth, OK; aunt, Nora McKinnon of Ringling, OK; special brotherly friend, Lawrence Sieger, along with 14 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and wonderful friends that grew to love Ron Ron and Mama Ann as they camped North, South, East and West with them through the years. Blue River and Lake City, Colorado were their two homes away from home that they both loved.

He wasn't happy if he and Ann weren't sitting around a campfire telling tall tales. He loved his dog, Millie and had such a tender heart that he couldn't watch the PETA or ASPCA commercials. He had 33 years as a gas operator and 23 years service with the Army as a Military Police and Army Reserves.

After his stint in the Army, Ronnie came back to Marietta to become a deputy with the Love County Sheriff's Department. He was a life time member of the NRA.

“ Its been many years and the last time I saw Ronnie he didnt look much different from this picture. My condolences to the family. His father, Clint, was brother to my grandfather, John Gay.

Hazel Gay - September 24, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Correction of previous message: Ronnies father, Clint, was son of my grandfathers brother, Cleve Gay. I know Ronnie will be missed.

Hazel Gay - September 24, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Ann and family, so sad to hear of Ronnie's passing. He was a sweet man and I will miss taking care of him at the clinic. Take comfort in knowing he is safe at a beautiful campsite in Heaven, waiting for you all to catch up and share a fish tale. May the Lord comfort you in this sad time....

Mary Ann Williams - July 28, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I met you and Ronnie when I visited with my sisters Susan and Nancy at the campsite.

“ Momma Ann, family and Lawrence. Our hearts are heavy today but full of love for all of you. We loved Ron Ron and I know that he knew that. Although we haven't seen you as much lately, he and you were always on our minds and in our hearts. Momma Ann, I know you are a very strong in your faith in God and he will walk with you through this very sad time. YOU are a survivor and I have no doubt that this will make you stronger. I am so glad you had the years with Ron Ron to share your love for camping and fishing. I love the picture you have on here, I can see why you were attracted to him, one handsome man right there.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one, Ronnie.
Take comfort in a promise from God found at Isaiah 25:8 ; "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." We are reassured of this promise at Revelation 21:4 ; "And he will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore..." I hope you were comforted by these thoughts today. For more information please visit jw.org.

“ ~Let children walk with Nature, let them see the beautiful blendings and communions of death and life, their joyous inseparable unity, as taught in woods and meadows, plains and mountains and streams of our blessed star, and they will learn that death is stingless indeed, and as beautiful as life.~

“ Grief is a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith...it is the price of love.
