“ I did not get to know Roy well, but his influence and love of Rhonda have changed my life forever. If he had not been the parent he was, who loved his daughter so much to support her through some very difficult decisions, I would never have had the chance to be a parent. He was steady and solid when Matt was born. He didn't say much, but he was there.

Thank you Roy and Winona for being such wonderful parents to Rhonda and Alton. You have touched more lives than you will ever know.
