“ I’m at a loss for words but never really realized how much u appreciate somebody til they’re gone. It bothers me so much that I never personally told Shane how much I appreciate him raising my son during some most important years of his life and help guide him by doing the right thing and leading by example so he knows right from wrong. Thank you Shane. U will never get to let me show u the gratitude I have but I know when I see my son grow into a responsible man I’ll always see a lil reflection of u in him. RIP Shane Shockey
