

Sharon Kay Tribby

August 20, 1941 - September 13, 2025

Sharon Kay Tribby entered eternal life with our Lord Jesus Christ on September 13th, 2025. She was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, on August 20th, 1941, but she so loved her home in Tucson, Arizona. After the death of her husband Gene, she moved to Durant, Oklahoma to be near her two daughters.

Sharon was sweet, fun, and enjoyed travelling in the later part of her life, recently visiting her friends, cousins, and other family members in a family reunion near Bloomington, Indiana.

She is survived by her two daughters, Marcie Wilson and Jo Nelson (husband James), two Grandchildren, Tyler Wilson and Chad McCarty (wife Jennifer), (all from Durant, Oklahoma), and brother Dwight Tribby (wife Nancy) from San Antonio, Texas. Sharon was preceded in death by her parents, Sam and Eleanor (Young) Tribby, Husband Gene, and Grandson Chris Bindhammer.

Sharon asked that there be no memorial or services for her. She lived quiet and simple and preferred to leave this life in that same way. The family suggests that if an honor be felt necessary, donations could be made to the Muscular Dystrophy Association to help fight the disease that took her first Grandchild, Chris.
