“ Shawn was the most stubborn and feisty woman you would ever meet, but if you became her friend you had a friend for life, once you broke through her walls to see how big her heart truly was you were amazed at the woman she was. Those close enough to her that she called family knew this first hand. She will always be loved and always be missed. I was blessed to call her my gf for many years, we had our difference but as we grew together those differences faded as we focused on what was important. I was truly blessed that her and my ex were friends, yeah they often argued or got mad at each other but they were always united when someone went after any of the kids, or when they wanted to both mess with me. Shawn will forever be holding our daughter Alani and looking over her family and friends

PS

“ I have known Shawn for a long time. She was going with my son Patrick Berlin. She was part of my family. After they move out here I really didnt reconize her. She was in so much pain. I took her to Ardmore for her treatment and we had lunch there. we talked and talked on the way home. She felt like she was a burden to everyone. I told her she wasnt a burden to anyone. we wanted her to get well and not to been in pain like she was. I am going to miss her. But she is now in heaven with her daughter and she is in no pain. She is now watching over the rest of us. She is up there with my family (mom, dad, brother and sister, and all my grand-parent. They are with her and help her. rest in peace Shawn. we will miss you and think about you always. I love you.
