“ Steve is one of the best people I have ever met. He had the best of all qualities... Genuine, sincere, integrity. All the best words describe. A laugh that was always there. We shared a house for awhile in High Point and I remember the only time he ever lost his cool and yelled at me was when a tornado was getting ready to hit. I yelled inside that it looked "really ominous out here....and it's really loud." He fired back from inside, "Does it sound like a freight train?" "Yeah kinda." I said
He then yelled louder than I had ever heard him, "Get your a** in here NOW!!!"
I ran inside, we hunkered down under an archway and the tornado hit 20 seconds later for about 30 seconds.
I also remember that he absolutely loved the movie "Platoon" and where and jungle scenes horrified most folks, Steve would always say that he would love to be able to do that.
His Dad FL once pulled me aside and thanked me for being nice to Steve. i was kinda surprised and said, "Are you kidding? He's such a good person that I hope some of it can rub off on me!"
Man o man, am I going to have great memories of my friend Steve. I hope he and ole Flavious Lee have found each other and are laughing it up together.

“ Steve, my heart is broken. You were a good friend...kind, helpful and loyal. Rest in Peace...until we meet again.

“ *My heart just hurts to find this out today.
We've been friends since elementary school.
Rest in peace my sweet friend.*
