“ My husband knew Sue from working at Silo. He took a quilt that his mother didn't get to finish that was for our daughter and asked Sue if she would finish it. She didn't hesitate and finished the quilt. We and our daughter really appreciated the work she put in to finishing the quilt. Sue had a heart of gold. She will be truly missed.

“ She definitely was a great cook and even greater person. I remember how she always gave my husband more helpings of food during Thanksgiving and Christmas meals when parents got to go eat with their children for lunches. She and her husband will be greatly missed

“ My fondest memory of Sue was she always had a dessert made sitting on the counter. She was an awesome cook and baker. I remember her making red beans, fried potatoes, gravy, and tortillas one day for dinner. For the life of me I couldn't figure what I was suppose to do with that combination. I had to ask! Lol. She said you put everything together and eat on tortilla. I just stuck with beans and cornbread. Which was awesome!
