“ I was saddened to hear of Sylvia's passing. She was a dear friend. As girls we spent many a Sunday afternoon in company together as teenage girls who loved the Lord and each other. Her dad was our pastor, but Sylvia was my friend.

“ Truly one of humanity's nicest people. Syl was one of the kindest, least selfish people I have ever known. At my current age of 57, in all of my life I can say without a shadow of a doubt that she was one of my favorite people in the world. As a friend, a relative, in every way I knew her, I loved her and felt loved by her. She always put others first and cared about people genuinely. She equally impressed my wife Iris as a true matriarch, much as her mom Mary was to her own family. Syl will be truly missed by all that knew her, and remembered fondly by us all.

“ Sending my condolences to the entire family. Had not seen Sylvia in several years but grew up with the Portman family there in Silo. Her mother was my 1st thru 4th grade teacher. May God watch over you.
