

Terry Lee Stout

May 19, 1960 - March 14, 2024

The sun rose for Terry on May 19th, 1960 in Cook County, Chicago, Illinois. He was born to Gary Lou Stout and Judy (Lipe) Stout. Terry was the oldest of 4 siblings. He loved fishing and was on the water every chance he got. Fishing tournaments early on and more for recreational purposes at the end, even when he started feeling bad, he still had the desire to fish. Watching fishing shows and buying fishing gear in hopes of getting back on the water. He wasn't always successful at catching the big fish, and often said "The smaller the fish the bigger the lie." Terry was also a big fan of rock concerts and music festivals. He and Jeanene would go often to Dallas or Oklahoma City to attend concerts. More so than fishing or concerts, Terry loved his family. He and Jeanene had been married 39 plus years, going for 40 in June of 2024. He has a son, Damian, who he often said was his idol. He was very proud of him and bragged on him whenever he could. Terry also has 2 beautiful granddaughters, Kaydan and Elizabeth, of whom he was also very proud of.

“ Grandpa Terry, even though most of my memories of you were from when I was super little, I’m glad to have had been able to see you again at least one last time in recent years. That way I’ll have a recent memory to hold on to. Hope you’re resting easy now.

Even after all was said and done, I loved you. All I can wish for you now is that you are at peace and have been able to leave all of ur pain and suffering behind you. You had a burden that was more than anyone could be expected to bear. We almost made that 40 year mark and even though you're not here in the physical form, you will be in my heart until my last breath.
