“ Terry was my oldest cousin. We reconnected after not knowing where she or the family went, I last saw her in 1971. We reconnected when my sister Jerri died in 2009. We stayed in touch, I loved her dearly. Terry was the sweetest person I know. Her faith was wonderful and powerful. I know she is extremely happy to be reunited with her son Bryan and Aunt Martha. Shes probably setting with all our deceased aunts, uncles and cousin playing penny inny and living every minute of it. Bless you cousin we will meet again in haven. Love you...

“ Lots of love and sympathy to Terry's family. I will certainly miss seeing her smiling face and laughing at her dry humor. She was a kind and generous neighbor and a caring and devoted friend to many, always ready to listen and help and loved by everyone.
