“ hi it's me again. i know you can't read this tina, but i've thought about you everyday since the day i was born. i wasn't in your life much at all; but i just really wish you were still here. i'm 18 next year, and i had planned for years now to come meet you. i've dedicated a song to you. WISH YOU WERE HERE by pink floyd. i'll never forget the woman who gave me a beautiful life, that woman is YOU. ;(
