

Gene Tollison

May 5, 1931 - June 1, 2011

Gene Tollison, 80, of Durant passed away Wednesday, June 1, 2011 at his home surrounded by his family. Gene was born May 5, 1931 in Gober, TX to Clarence Tollison and Naomi (Bishop) Tollison. He graduated from Lubbock High School, and then attended Texas Tech receiving a Bachelor's Degree. Gene married Peggy Williamson in Crosbyton, TX on March 13, 1959. They moved to Bryan County in the early 1970's. Gene own and operated Acme Mattress Company. He was a member of the Optimist club, Hunting, Fishing and Archery club of TX, Little Dribblers Association and a season ticket holder to Durant Lion Football since 1976. He was an avid Durant Lion Athletic supporter and he enjoyed fishing, hunting, bingo, and watching his grandkids play sports.

Gene is preceded in death by his parents Clarence and Naomi Tollison. Gene is survived by his wife Peggy Tollison of the home; three sons Bert Tollison and wife Julie of Claremore, OK, Greg Tollison of Durant, OK, and Ricky Tollison of Durant, OK; two Daughters Robin Counce and husband Jeff of Durant, OK, and Judy Bolin and husband Bill of Houston, TX; brother Bob Tollison of Pottsboro, TX; sister Helen Frank of Denison, TX; grandchildren Chris Counce and wife Amanda, Cassidy Counce and fiancé Chad Gilmore, Clint Tollison and wife Randi, Jennifer Dennison and husband David, Becci Cogliano and husband Kris, Adam Bolin and Ember Tollison; great grandchildren Jase Counce (Papaw's Little Man), Laura, Joshua and Sarah Dennison, Clint Jr., Logan Brock and Brandi Tollison,

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Gene Tollison

January 08, 2023 at 11:32 PM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Unfortunately, we will not be able to attend the service for Gene. I will be doing another funeral at the very same hour. May the Lord bless you and keep you.

John & Joy Curtis - June 02, 2011 at 12:00 AM