“ My heart is breaking right now for your family. She was such a loving and beautiful woman. She loved me and especially loved my girls. I can never replace the love and care she had for them and gave them. Her along with her little tykes family were such a huge part of our lives and did a huge part in helping mold Presley into the little girl she is today. I will miss her dearly. Many prayers for her family and friends during this very sad time. Love you guys!
