“ Dear Daddy, my Daddy, I want to tell you happy birthday today. I know that you couldn't stay for it, here with us and that your journey was a good one. Letting you go that day was one of the hardest things I have ever had to do, but I know that those angels I told you about would see you through and safely to re-join the rest of our family. I couldn't take away your pain so I had to let go. I hope that was alright Daddy. I do know however that you are not hurting any more and I need you to know Daddy that it's ok that you had to go. We all still love you more than (well maybe you do) you'll ever know. Your eyes told me a story that day, one I will never forget, so don't you worry about a thing because someday we will be together again ok. WE all will miss you so, we already miss you very much, Mom and the boys miss you and love you terribly as well as myself. But I know you have things going on up there, with all your friends and family. I bet the ladies are enjoying you opening the golden gates for them to. They all thought of you as such a gentleman and indeed that you are. Daddy I'm going to miss you so, so very much. My heart is breaking. It just doesn't seem like you're gone even though I was there. I remember all our fishing trips and things like that. How proud I felt just being your daughter and how proud I'm that you were my father. You are a part of my world and missing you is just putting it mildly. So Happy Birthday to you, my Father, my buddy, my friend but most of all my Daddy. This night I light a candle for you as I have for the past 7 nights but this night is a special night just for you. I Love You Daddy and I know you will be there for me always and the angels will to. It will be very hard for sometime but with God, Prayer and Time we will see things through. I just hope that I didn't let you down Daddy but I just couldn't stand to see you hurt any more. That's why I prayed to God to take away your pain. Please forgive me. I just love you so much. Well I had better let you get back to your Birthday Party and thank you for being my Daddy. I LOVE YOU SO!!!

Love your Daughter.

“ Hay Daddy, Preston has already gone to bed but I know he would want to light a candle for you and to say Happy Birthday. He took your leaving very hard and he loved you so much. He was so hoping for another fishing trip with you. At least he had a good time with you on Fathers day. We all really enjoyed that day with you. So I know that he would want you to know that he loved you just like his own dad. We love you and Happy, Happy Birthday!!!!!!

Love Preston and Tammy.

“ Hi again Daddy, yea, you know me, can't stop until I know things are right and as I did Preston's sign in last night I should have done it for Maybell as well. I know she would have loved to do it herself but since she isn't here I'm doing it for her. She to is going to miss you so,so,so much. She really loves you Daddy and you both were so go to each other. She is also so good to us kids and with out her I don't know how I would have handled any of this. Thats how I know how much she cared and loved you and it broke her heart to let you go. She moved your little love seat back where you liked it and will be enjoying time just setting there were you always use to be. It to will take time for her to come to grips with your passing but I believe that if we help and hold one another we will be ok. So with this I'm sure that she sends her Happy Belayed Birthday to you and that she loves you!!!

Love always Maybell.

“ I want to wish you a happy birthday; was hoping I could do it while you were still here but I guess you wanted to have your party with Mom and the rest of your family that were waiting for you. The kid's miss you so much but they'll be alright. Could you please send a angel to watch over them. We love you "alway's" Clara
