“ My memories of Tony go back to Amsden in Denison. And the stories over the yrs of the brothers shananigans and getting in trouble while playful growing up. Tony jumping up and down on the tree house trying to get at Danny and a friend. There was a b b gun on inside of tree house firing up at wood. I could see .Boys boys, They were like stair steps the first three, Bless Wanda's heart, then came baby Archie three yrs later. Ill keep those memories of Amsden in Denison in rock house next to Allen's.
