

Tony Gene Crosby

November 8, 1967 - May 2, 2021

Tony Gene Crosby, age 53, started his journey on earth in Grapevine, Texas, on November 8, 1967. That journey ended in Mead, Oklahoma, on May 2, 2021. He was born to parents Billy Gene and Charlene (Leonard) Crosby. The family moved to Sherman, Texas, where he attended Sherman High.

During his journey, he learned, taught, and loved hard. Tony was known as a Jack of all trades. He was a very well-respected General Manager of Builders First Source Lumber Company.

Tony found love and married Catherine Crosby in Gunter, Texas, on February 22, 1992. The two went hand and hand. The two became one. As years passed, they enjoyed life and their family calling South Mayd, Texas home. Tony was a family man, without a doubt. He would go without to help others and expect nothing in return. On lovely days you would find Tony with his fishing pole. Shocking onlookers when he would throw the biggest catch of the day back.

Tony was preceded in death by his father Bill Crosby, mother Charlene Crosby, brother Danny Lynn Crosby.

Survived by wife Catherine Crosby of Mead Oklahoma, daughter Crystal Parrott and spouse Justin of Sherman Texas, son Steven Crosby of Mead Oklahoma, sisters Kathy McClung of Mead Oklahoma and Paula Bates and spouse Bobby of Mead Oklahoma, Starla Massey and spouse Marvin of Cartwright Oklahoma, brothers Bobby Crosby of Sherman Texas and Eddie Crosby and spouse Regina of Mead Oklahoma, grandson Shane Chancellor of Whitesboro Texas, granddaughters Alainah and Emma Parrott of Sherman Texas and mother-in-law Lois Wright and numerous nieces and nephews, family and friends.

I knew Tony just a short time, but he was family. In the few times I seen him/talked to him he was in the best of spirits and spread it around. His smile, and, kindness will forever be missed, but, never forgotten.. RIP Tony Crosby

I met Tony 8 years ago when I joined BFS. He was a great person, and amazing human being. He cared about his employees and was very respected & loved by them. Tony will leave a void in our Hearts and will forever be remembered. RIP
