“ A little Princess when I first met her at the tender age of almost 3...just weeks before I got married in her Mom' and her grandmas' house. She carried with her the sweetness and the kindness of her whole family...she made a very special time in my life even more special! Rest in the arms of our sweet Lord Miss Tracy. Love always Gwen McAlester

“ Tracy we never did get to wear our Blue streaks in our hair like we wanted to but girl I am going to just as a tribute to you. We were a lot alike in the weird things we wanted to do. But when I do them I know you will be looking down on me saying " you go girl" . Miss seeing you sitting in your chair just chomping away at your huge sonic cup of ice and just being here period. Just know that you were loved by all of us here at Choctaw Dental and you have left a hole that will never be filled. Fly high my sweet angel you are no longer a prisoner a sick and tired body, you have a new rocking body that is I bet 6 foot tall and got some curves. May your family think of all the good times and how much you loved them in these hard days to come. RIP my sweet girl.....Lisa Lambert
