“ 1st met Vesta in our teens we lived a few blocks from ec other in McAlester. Later in life after we both had children we got back together and raised our kids together just a few miles from ec other again we not only were family but became the best of friends we had a lot of laughs lot of talks and cried on ec others shoulders. No one could be around Vesta without laughing a lot she will be greatly missed. I have an empty spot in my heart and it hurts so much. God bless Jim and her babies. We always say no matter how old your kids are they will always be our babies. Love you all. Mary Sieger
