“ To her daughters: I am sorry for your loss. It is our loss as well. Andrew and Virginia were our neighbors growing up. I have many memories of your mother. She like to teach us about rocks and every once in a while we'd get lucky and she'd give us a quartz rock and one is still in my dad's garden. She loved to tell stories of her life as a child and could talk for hours! She will be greatly missed and our block will not be the same without her. Prayers for you all.
