“ Dear Curtis and Laura,

I can only imagine what you guys are going through. Time is so short and precious on Earth. One minute life is going as planned, then at a split second your world gets turned upside down. I am so sorry that I am not going to be able to make it to family night or the funeral, but I hope that you know that I am thinking about you and praying for answers, healing, and a sense of peace. I can only imagine how hard this time is especially when you still have questions that need answers.

When you become a parent, you hope that your time to go will come before your children. When that doesn't happen it feels like your world has been turned upside down. Even if you have all of the answers to your questions, the pain will always be there. It feels like you can't go on and your life will never be the same, but rest assured that you will see him again one day. Eternity in Heaven is forever, it will never go away and it will never end. You may ask yourself "Why us? What did we do to deserve this?" Sometimes bad things happen to good people to allow God to work through strong people like yourselves. There is always a reason for everything, even though we may not agree. When you feel like you can't go on remember that people are watching and you are a shining example of God's love and one of his children. I fully believe that God is going to use you two and your testimony to share His word and be a light in the darkness for others to see. I pray that you continue to be strong physically, emotionally, and spiritually giving you peace and comfort when you need it the most. I love you guys and if you ever need anything please let me know.

*Love Forever,
Christy Marsh & Family*
